We can learn something more of the task before us if we look at the steady increase of the foliag population of the State. In 1884 a large measure contribute.

At the conclusion of the State, in 1884 speech recess was taken. of less than 1.100 was changed to Harrison's Digrafity of 14.000, and the Republican vote from 562,000 in 1884 to upward of 050,000 in 1885.

In 1885.

In other words, we added 89,377 to our yots of 1884, and then only passed our opponents by a bare 14,000. It seems to follow that we cannot hope to carry the State this Fall unless our electoral ticket shall receive 750,000 votes.

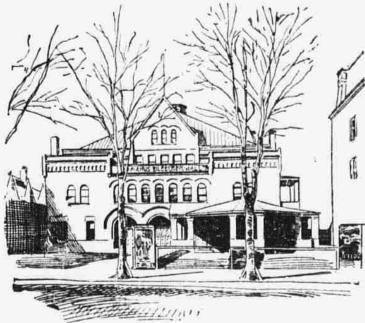

But Democratic votes increase as well as Resultings votes.

Naval Officer Willis, who opened headquarters at the Kenmore yesterday, placarded with signs so large that he who ran might read, and received the Ruralists there in state, called the King's Men to order this forenoon. There were not more than fifty of the eighty-one delegates present, and a goodly sprinkling of those said that Mr. Willis could not deliver the sixty-eight votes for Harrison that he had boasted, and they said it out loud. Mr. Willis named W. A. Kendal chairman
